

Walnut Growers Bill of Rights

- The right to a fair, clearly written and legal contract
- The right to fair and equitable payment based on market prices and long term profitability
- The right to know terms of payment prior to delivery
- The right to know how prices will be calculated and determined prior to delivery
- The right to know penalty and incentive schedules by variety, by timing of deliveries, and by quantities delivered
- The right to share in market gains when asked to share in market risk
- The right to know the costs of handling, processing and marketing of your deliveries when sharing the market risks of price fluctuations
- The right to know grading standards and handler deducts for quality problems and issues prior to delivery

The Walnut Bargaining Association supports and advocates these rights for our members and the industry. To add your support, contact the WBA to join your fellow growers:
